Ten months ago, I began practicing Kundalini Yoga, which has been a huge blessing! In the month of August, my teacher began teaching out of I Am Woman. I liked the sets we did in class so much, I bought my own book so I could practice at home. Each set is beautifully photographed, and explained in detail. The purpose of each posture and breath is clearly explained so one can observe its effects. Each chapter begins with beautiful words of wisdom and support by the authors. It is as if the wisest sisters, mothers and grandmothers who have ever lived are surrounding and supporting. This morning as I did a kriya to calm my overly active mind, I found myself filled with joy and appreciation for the women who compiled this book. It is as if they are reaching out from the pages with love guidance and support. I felt so loved, and able to carry on my day with a clear mind. Thank you! Thank you to the authors of this book. And perhaps, as the writer above states, a spiral binding would allow the book to lay flat, but I would love it no matter what!
